

We help teachers of any singing style to be the best they can be, by providing opportunities for learning, developing and networking

GOAL 1: INCREASE MEMBERSHIP

Encourage a strong relationship between ANATS and the singing teaching community by attracting new and retaining current members

 Engage young and emerging teachers through mentorship, professional development opportunities and university connections

Promote the benefits of ANATS membership to the wider singing community

 Provide high-quality and relevant professional development

Reward loyal members

 Provide individual and community support through member interaction, personal contact and clear communication

Enhance value for money such as free resources, member discounts, advocacy and visibility

GOAL 2: EXHIBIT LEADERSHIP

Ensure ANATS is perceived as a leader in the field of singing teaching and voice pedagogy, both nationally and internationally

Create and facilitate high-quality professional development events across a variety of styles and experience levels

 Foster a professional image in all communications

Seek to connect and strengthen ties with the international singing voice community through the promotion of Australian research and collaborations with international pedagogues

 Advocate for best practice within the industry of singing teaching

GOAL 3: PROMOTE INCLUSIVITY

Demonstrate inclusivity and diversity across the areas of event planning, geography, community and accessibility

 Provide access to a wide range of learning contexts across a broad range of styles, topics and levels of expertise

Ensure all members have similar access to resources and professional development events

 Recognise and support all industry environments in the teaching of singing

Create safe spaces for member discussion and support

 Seek to develop collaborations, both with other associations and between members

Promote a spirit of inclusivity within the greater voice community
